

D7 – General Art performer & Crew Multiple Entry Visa (30 Days)

The D7 Visa is a type of multiple-entry visa that allows individuals to display or perform works of art and culture, such as dance, theater, and other artistic expressions, with a stay of up to 30 days. However, it is important to note that this visa cannot be extended. This means that while holders can enter and exit Indonesia multiple times during its validity, they must ensure that their activities are completed within the designated time frame. For those in the music field, a separate visa is required to accommodate specific performance regulations.

For those wishing to stay longer than 30 days while having the flexibility to enter and exit Indonesia, it is recommended to opt for a KITAS (Limited Stay Visa) for impresario. This type of visa provides a longer duration of stay and allows for multiple entries, making it ideal for individuals involved in cultural or artistic activities who require more time to carry out their work and commitments in Indonesia.
